PROTECTION WINS

Senate Disposed of Number of Paragraphs of Tariff Bill.

INSURGENTS WHIPPED OUT

Duty on Top Waste Considerably Increased—LaFollette and Warren Pitted Against Each Other in a Debate.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, June 9.—The Senatorial managers failed to realize their expectation of being able to dispose of the woolen schedule at an early hour today, but instead were still engaged upon that schedule when at 5:30 o'clock the Senate took its usual recess. Some progress was made, several votes were obtained and thus a number of paragraphs were passed upon. Among these was the paragraph on top waste, etc., on which the committee amendment increased the House rate on wool top waste and other wastes from 20 cents per pound to 30 cents per pound, which on a division of the Senate was adopted by a vote of 40 to 30. This was a finance committee change and the committee scored its usual majority on this as on all other votes of the day. Senators Gamble and Crawford deserted the so-called progressives, but with these exceptions the ranks of that contingent remained unbroken. A vote was also obtained upon the committee amendment to increase the duty on shoddy from 20 cents per pound to 25 cents and that on tops from 18 to 20 cents, the committee prevailing in both cases.

Speeches were made during the day by Senators Warren and LaFollette, the former advocating, as on yesterday, a generally increased duty, while the latter contended as on previous occasions for a general reduction. The two Senators engaged in a sharp controversy during which Mr. LaFollette said that those in the Senate who believed with him had increased from nothing to a dozen. He said he expected further accretions from the East.

Probably the most interesting, if not the most important development of the day was a declaration by Senator Dolliver that a rag trust exists. The Iowa Senator declared such to be the case, but he was contradicted by Mr. Warren, who declared that if such a trust did exist he would know about it and he added that he had no knowledge of it.

At the beginning of the day's session a letter was read from ex-Governor Durbin, of Indiana, advising prompt action on the tariff bill.

Mr. LaFollette occupied the entire night session without concluding his speech. The Senate adjourned at 10:25 P. M.

TO MARK CONFEDERATE GRAVES.

Government Will Erect Monument in National Cemetery.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, June 9.—The United States government is to erect a monument of marble or granite to cost about $8,500, in the Confederate section of Finn's Point national cemetery at Salem, N. J., to mark the resting place of 2,460 officers and men of the Confederate army and navy who died as prisoners of war at Fort Delaware between 1862 and 1865. Bids will be opened June 21 by Colonel William C. Coates, commissioner for marking the graves of Confederate soldiers.

Colonel Coates has arranged also to place fences around Camp Chase Confederate cemetery near Columbus, and the Confederate cemetery at North Alton, Ill.

A. H. RIVENBARK SENTENCED

Young White M[illegible] Given 18 Months for Swindling—Negro to Hang at Williamston—Goldsboro Black-Hand Case.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 9.—Governor Kitchin declines to interfere with the death sentence of Robert Roberson, the negro to be hanged Friday at Williamston for the murder of Charles Witchard, a butcher at Robersonville in a quarrel over $1.50 the negro claimed the butcher was due him. The Governor declines in face of the fact that the trial judge, solicitor, one juror and a Supreme Court Judge who wrote the opinion affirming the trial below asked for commutation.

A. H. Rivenbark was today sentenced to 18 months in the Atlanta penitentiary by Judge Connor, of the Federal Court, for a swindling business on a large scale by fraudulent use of the mails from Raleigh, Laurinburg and elsewhere, ordering goods from dealers in many part of the country and selling them without settling with the firms from whom they were purchased. Rivenbark entered a plea of guilty through counsel, Stephen McIntyre, of Lumberton.

The Federal Court has a "hopelessly divided" jury in the case of Charlie Wilkins, of Goldsboro, charged with writing two "black-hand" letters to J. E. Cole, a prosperous merchant of Goldsboro, and threatening to blow up Cole, his store and family if $100 was not forthcoming. Wilkins admitted writing the letters but his counsel, Aycock & Winston, made a fight for him on the ground that he was so addicted to the opium habit that his will power and power of discriminating between right and wrong was destroyed. There was evidence that he took as much as one and a half ounces of the drug each day with the consequent physical and mental wreckage; that he read constantly novels of the "black-hand" and Jesse James sort. His wife and two children attended the trial and the wife was an important witness in his behalf. He testified that, under the influence of the drug, he often saw "Green alligators with yellow heads." The prisoner is clearly a mental and physical wreck from "dope" and the jury is divided as to the degree of his responsibility for his conduct.

At Halifax, N. S., yesterday afternoon twenty men were hurled into a burning building while fighting a fire in the plant of the Nova Scotia Furnishing Company. The roof of one of the buildings on which the men were standing suddenly collapsed. One man, James Tynan, a fireman, was killed and seven were injured by the accident. The loss was only about $6,000. All the injured, it is believed, will recover.

DUKE'S GIFT TO TRINITY

Another $50,000 for New Dormitory. Dr. Frank Brown, of University of Chicago, Succeeds Dr. Edwin Mims—Notes.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Durham, N. C., June 9.—The final day of Trinity Commencement today was marked by a number of interesting features and announcements, including a most gracious gift from Mr. B. N. Duke, who donates $50,000 to be used in the erection of a new dormitory, and the naming of Dr. Frank Brown, of the University of Chicago, to succeed Dr. Edwin Mims, in the Department of English, with other interesting and largely attended commencement exercises.

The Dukes in recent years have been especially philanthropic toward Trinity College and for various purposes material to the advancement of the instintution have given considerably over half a million dollars. The rapid increase of students during the past few sessions made it very necessary to provide more dormitory space and Mr. Duke's handsome donation was most timely and was received with enthusiasm by the trusts, Trinity's faculty, and many friends of the institution.

Another large assemblage greeted Dr. Hugh Black, of New York, who delivered the commencement address in place of Senator J. P. Dolliver, who was unable to be present. His theme "What is Originality," was a skilful exhibit of a deep thinker and was even more pleasing and interesting than his great sermon on the previous day. The concluding feature was the annual reception in the Washington Duke building tonight.

At the conclusion of Dr. Black's address the degrees were presented, certificates and prizes awarded, and announcements made for the year. The Senior class numbers 39, which is second to the largest in the history of the college.

Mr. Thomas McMillan Grant, of Wilmington, is a member of the graduating class. Among the commencement visitors during the past few days are Messrs. W. B. Cooper and Rev. W. L. Cuninggim, the latter a member of the Board of Trustees, of Wilmington.

VETERANS' REUNION

General Clement A. Evans Reelected Commander of The U. C. V.

STORMY BUSINESS MEETING

Young Mississippi Congressman Butts in With Ill-Advised Speech, Amid Plaudits and Hisses—Mobile Wins Reunion.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Memphis, Tenn., June 9.—After reelecting General Clement A. Evans, commander-in-chief over his vigorous but futile protest, and selecting Mobile, Ala., as the next place of re-union, the United Confederate Veterans adjourned their business meetings tonight on the heels of a very stormy session. The big feature of the re-union, the parade of the veterans, will be held tomorrow and the parade will close the re-union of 1909.

The only candidate for commander-in-chief placed in nomination was General William M. Cabell, commander of the trans-Mississippi division. Just before nominations were in order General Evans read an announcement to the convention in which he declined re-election. He said he had served in every capacity from the lowest to the highest, and that he felt that the highest honor in the veterans' gift should be passed from one ex-Confederate to another in turn.

But the delegates disagreed with him and by a vote of 1,540 to 744 for Cabell, re-elected General Evans to command. With tears streaming down his cheeks and shaking with emotion, the stately and aged soldier bowed to the commands of his comrades.

His election followed one of the stormiest sessions of the Veterans, which old-time delegates can recollect. After Mobile, Houston, Nashville, Chattanooga and Oklahoma City had been put in nomination for the next re-union some one began to introduce outside speakers. Sweltering in a temperature of over a hundred degrees, the veteran delegates objected strongly and yelled vigorously for a vote. But the disorder was desultory. Finally John W. Apperson, commander in chief of the United Sons of Confederate Veterans, secured the floor and introduced Congressman T. U. Sisson, of Mississippi, as the spokesman of the Sons. Nearly everyone thought Sisson was to spring a "dark horse" candidate for the next meeting place, but as it became evident that the young Congressman merely desired to make a speech the delegates became noisy and calls of "sit down," and "vote," were insistent. Sisson was game, however, and won out on a test of endurance. He announced that he wished to repeat his speech in Congress, delivered in answer to Congressman Calderhead, from Kansas, who charged that the Southern people were lazy. Sisson received some encouragement and some hisses, but he persevered. Finally, he concluded in a burst of eloquence, saying:

"The principles you fought for were right in '61 and are right today. You were not conquered then, you are not conquered now, and the greatest monuments in your honor are the millions of pensions the Federal government pays to the widows and orphans your valor made and the 46,000 graves in Arlington cemetery, which the Federal government decorates each 30th of May. As long as these monuments are perpetuated to your honor you need erect no others."

Sisson's speech was received with mingled cheers and hisses, and many Confederates left the hall in disgust. Others crowded around him and swamped him with congratulations. Meantime Mrs. Moore Murdock, of Dallas, Texas, was endeavoring to be heard. She wanted to second the nomination of Houston, Texas, for the next re-union. She possesses a very masculine voice and manner of delivery and she soon quieted the assembly. The veterans listened in patience until she declared:

"We have lived as rebels, we are still rebels, and we will die as rebels."

Then pandemonium broke loose. It was difficult to tell whether the majority favored her sentiments or opposed them. Cheers were mingled with cat-calls and hisses, and above all reverberated the ear-splitting rebel yell.

Several other speakers were introduced, but no one heard their names or what they said until Governor Haskell, of Oklahoma, was introduced. Even he had a stormy greeting, which might be construed one way or another. Finally, however, he tired out the crowd and made a diplomatic speech, inviting the convention to choose Oklahoma City for the 1910 re-union.

"You will find Confederate veterans in most of the offices of the State, from Supreme Court judges to constable," he said, "and you will find as hearty a welcome as you will find anywhere on God's earth."

Immediately after the Governor's speech the vote for the next reunion city began. Every one picked Houston as the winner, but Mobile seemed to have conducted a gum shoe campaign, and it soon became evident that the Alabama City had won. She polled 1,384 votes with Houston second with 695. Oklahoma City, Nashville and Chattanooga received scattering votes. As soon as it became apparent that Mobile had won, there was a scramble to get into the band wagon, and the choice was made unanimous.

General Evans' re-election likewise was made unanimous, and the convention forgetting its disagreements of an hour before, adjourned to the tune of "Dixie," the delegates cheering, laughing, crying and even hugging one another.

The weather tonight continues frightfully hot and oppressive. Many division commanders declare that should it continue as hot tomorrow they will withdraw their commands from the parade rather than risk the lives of their old soldiers in the deadly heat.

BLACKHAND SOCIETY

Government Unearths Complete Organization in Several States.

EXTORTION AND MURDER

Organization More Systematic Than That of the Mafia—Ill-Gotten Gains Divided and Sent to Relatives in Italy.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Cincinnati, O., June 9.—Revelations in the extortion, plotting and murder by the Blackhand, as uncovered by the postoffice inspectors from the Cincinnati office, show conclusively that the gang in Columbus, Marion, Dennison and Bellefontaine and other Ohio towns was organized along the same lines as the old Mafia, but with a better system for concealing their movements.

It is now known that the Ohio Blackhand, or the Society of the Banana, as its members style themselves, had a branch in Pittsburg and one in Chicago and a line that extended to South Dakota. Regular meetings were held and the money obtained by extortion was distributed to various divisions in this country and sent to relatives in Italy for safe keeping.

"We have found I believe to be certain proof that the Blackhand outrages were committed by a well organized society said Chief Postoffice Inspector Holmes to an Associated Press representative today.

"It has taken Inspector Oldfield and four other men under me six months to run down the leaders. We have no evidence so far that the American Blackhand in the West is connected with the foreign organization that killed Lieutenant Petrosino in Sicily."

Nine arrests have been made thus far in Columbus, Marion, Dennison and Cincinnati are looking for Antonio Lima, brother of Salvatore Lima who was arrested in Marion. Antonio Lima is held to be one of the chief ring leaders.

An effort will be made to have the prisoners indicted by a Federal grand jury at Cleveland on the charge of conspiracy to commit extortion.

ANTI SALOON FORCES BEATEN

Met Bitter Defeat in Youngstown and Mahoning County, Ohio.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Youngstown, Ohio, June 9.—Anti saloon forces in Ohio suffered a bitter defeat today when Youngstown, with 80,000 inhabitants, and the remainder of Mahoning county voted in a special election to retain the saloons. The vote in the 84 city and county precincts was—"wet" 11,232; "dry" 9,263.

Ten thousand persons packed themselves into the public square tonight and cheered bulletins showing the partial election returns. The principal streets were made unsafe by processions of automobiles running at high speed and filled with yelling men. Chief of Police McDowell has ordered all saloons closed and is keeping his entire force on duty.

CAPTAIN WALDRON DROWNED

Massachusetts Sea Captain Loses Life At Savannah.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Savannah, Ga., June 9.—While attempting to board his vessel, the schooner Tifton tonight, captain J. Waldron, of Lynn, Mass., missed his footing and fell, struck his head against the schooner's side and rolled into the Savannah river. He did not come up again and efforts to find his body have been fruitless. The Tifton reached Savannah, from Boston and Norfolk, May 22. Captain Waldron leaves a wife and four children.

EARTHQUAKE KILLS HUNDREDS.

Portion of Sumatra Devastated—Tidal Wave Followed.

(By Cable to the Morning Star.)

Padang, Sumatra, June 9.—The town of Korinchi, 185 miles to the southwest of Padang, was devastated by an earthquake the night of June 3-4. Two hundred and thirty people were killed and many others injured. The shock was accompanied by a tidal wave which swept away the native huts like cockleshells.

O'BRIEN KNOCKED OUT

Ketchell, Middleweight Champion Achieved Feat in Three Rounds What Negro Heavyweight Failed to do in Six.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Philadelphia, June 9.—Stanley Ketchel, middle-weight champion, tonight defeated Jack O'Brien in the third round, thus accomplishing a feat that Jack Johnson, the negro heavyweight champion, failed to achieve in six rounds some three weeks ago. The fight was stopped in the second minute of the third round, after O'Brien had been knocked down twice ie the second and once in the third, and was almost unable to raise his hands to defend himself.

Ketchel went after O'Brien from the tap of the gong. He devoted his attention to O'Brien's body until he had drawn the latter's guard down, and then sent in a crashing right in the second round that scored the first knock down. O'Brien got up gamely but went down flat on his back a few moments later from a right and a left on the jaw. This time he struggled to his feet at the sound of six and two seconds later the gong rang.

The third and last round was brief. Ketchel in his anxiety to finish it quickly was wild and many of his swings went wide of the mark. Finally he cornered O'Brien and sent in a left short arm blow on the jaw that about finished it. O'Brien could not fall because he was pinned in a corner. He crumpled up on the ropes and clung to Ketchel's neck desperately. Shaking him loose Ketchel sent in right and left again that put O'Brien very groggy.

Referee McGuigan, seeing O'Brien's condition and wishing to avert a possible serious injury stopped the fight. Both men weighed less than 160 pounds.

SIX MEN ROASTED TO DEATH.

Horrible Accident at Works of Wheeling Steel and Iron Company.

Wheeling, W. Va., June 9.—Six men litterally burned to a crisp, 12 fatally injured and ten more or less seriously injured are the results of an explosion tonight at the Martins Ferry, Ohio, blast furnace of the Wheeling Steel & Iron Company. Twenty-four others had miraculous escapes from horrible death or injury.

At midnight fragments of four blackened bodies had been recovered. The other victims will probably never be found. The 20 injured men, some with arms and legs burned off and their bodies terribly burned, are being attended at a hospital at Martin's Ferry.

Some of the injured, after being showered with the molten iron, ran screaming to the Ohio river nearby and plunged into the cool water. They were quickly rescued and sent to a hospital. The accident is the first to occur at this furnace. All the men were foreigners. The cause of the accident has not been determined.

ARTILLERY RESERVES IN CAMP

Little Outside of Regular Routine Yesterday—Baseball Championship of the Regulars—Wilmington Men Handle Guns.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Fort Caswell, N. C., June 9.—Outside of the regular routine of camp life, there was very little doing in a military way in this post for the last 24 hours. Yesterday afternoon was devoted to preliminary instruction to State troops with a lecture on camp sanitation and other minor matters pertaining to life under canvas.

This morning was devoted to battery drill on the big guns, the Regulars and militia alternating. The boys from Carolina's metropolis, who had considerable experience last year, went about this duty like veterans and their good showing met with many remarks of approval by the officers and men of the regular army. This evening there was dress parade by the State and Regular troops, and a lecture on the administration of Coast Artillery personnel.

The boys are enjoying their military life immensely, and take great interest in all things pertaining to coast defense and military laws. All are in fine health and ready for any service that they may be called upon to perform. The State troops mounted guard today with the Regulars and showed up admirably.

The Wilmington boys have organized a baseball team to do battle with the boys of the Caswell league and promise to give them the battle of their lives. The Cubs yesterday won the championship of the Caswell League by defeating the Senators in the first game of a scheduled double-header, the second game being cancelled as the Cubs could not be displaced and the Senators could not rise from the cellar position. The Cubs lead, the Tigers were second and the hapless Senators were last.

Night drill will be held Saturday night and will give the State troops a sample of coast defense by searchlight.

Hot Weather.

But you forget it on the ride to the Pier. Steamer Wilmington leaves daily at 5:15 P. M. Fare 15 cents for round trip. ju 5-tf

Patton, the new pitcher for the crew of the Mary Jane, was a trifle unsteady in the first inning of yesterday's game with the Railroaders at Rocky Mount and the game was lost in a score of two to nothing in the best game of the series. Only two hits were credited to the Sailors and these were by the two new men, Nichols, first baseman, and Accersini at shortstop. Waymack, for the Railroaders, pitched a magnificent game and after the first inning, Patton was just as invincible as his opposing slab artist.

The first two Sailors at the willow, Sharp and Streaser, fanned and the best Captain Dick Smith could do was out short to first. Johnson, first up for Rocky Mount, was walked by Patton and Krebs was hit by a pitched ball; Johnson was out at third on fielder's choice of Sorrell's hit to Patton; Walsh hit safely to centrefield and Krebs was thrown out at home. It looked like Patton was pulling himself out of a great hole, but Ogara,n ext up, lined a stinger to centre and Sorrell and Walsh raced across the plate. Lambert ended the agony by flying out of a great hole, but O'Gara, next fanned and Kite and Nichols were out from the infield. Moran, Forbes and Wymack were fanned in succession by Patton in Rocky Mount's half.

In the third Accorsini was safe on error of pitcher, Patton fanned and Jayes and Sharp were out from the infield. Rocky Mount out in order. Wilmington was up and down in the fourth and for Rocky Mount Walsh was safe on error of short; Ogara sacrificed and Walsh was out trying third; Lambert walked but Moran beat the air. Both teams were out in order in the fifth. In the sixth Accorsini varied the monotony by leading off with a single to centre and stole second, but the others were out on flies. Sorrell got a safety for the Railroaders after Krebs flew out but Walsh popped out to short and Ogara beat at three nice deceptions by Patton. In this inning Sorrell hurt his ankle playing off first and was replaced at third by James in the seventh, which was featured by the retirement of both sides in order. In the eighth Nichols, the other new man, led off with a single and was sacrificed by Jayes and Accorsini but Patton was out on long fly to right. In its turn Waymack led off with a single to centre for Rocky Mount but was caught asleep at first; Krebs hit past third and was safe on first, but the others were out in order. In the ninth, Sharp drew a pass and Levy batting for Streaser and Smith flew out to right, while Brodie fanned.

THE SOUTH'S SHARE OF PROTECTION.

The esteemed Winston- Republicau quotes this paragraph from a recent editorial in The Star:

"A great many people seem to forget that the Democratic Senators and Representatives at Washington are not in the majority and therefore can not carry out the Denver platform as to the tariff. Therefore, the best that they can do is to see that all the protection does not go to the North."

The Republican then makes this comment:

"This is about the poorest excuse yet printed. If Democratic Senators cannot carry out the Denver platform they could at least vote and thus stand by the sentiment it expresses. Again, if protection is good for the North it is good for the South. There is no dividing line in this respect."

The Republican ought to know that Senators and Representatives are not sent to Washington for sentiment but for business. The Star's position has been all along that if we are going to have a protective tariff, and that is what the Republican majority is determined that the country shall have, Southern Congressmen should see to it that the South gets its share. This contention in no way violates the sentiment against a tariff so high that it burdens the consumers and yet produces no revenue for the government.

The South, and as a matter of fact the country at large, wanted the tariff revised downward and not upward as the Republican majority is doing it. As we are going to have higher protective duties, wouldn't the Republicans think Southern Congressmen would be chumps, for the sake of mere sentiment, to sit in the Senate and the House and see the tariff revised downward for the South and upward for the North?

The Republican must very well know that consumers in the South, consuming Northern manufactures, would be at a terrible disadvantage if they had to pay tariff tribute to the North while none of the tribute came back to the South. The Star's editorial was a contention that if the Republican majority is bent on protection there should be an equatable (equal would be better if it were possible) distribution of the benefits for all sections of the country, North, South, East and West. Sentiment cuts no ice when it comes to the South's sharing equally with the other sections of the country in a tariff that is revised either upward or downward. All should be fed out of the same spoon, and it would be an absolutely absurd proposition for Democratic Senators to be in Washington nursing a sentiment about the Denver platform while the Republican majority is scrambling after all the protection it can get out of a tariff that is being "revised by its friends." The Senate is working under the Chicago platform and not under the Denver platform, and Southern Senators who know their business will see to it that the South gets a square deal in tariff distribution. Sentiment be hanged! The Senate is not legislating on sentiment now. It is legislating on the tariff, and if it is going to be protective, the business of Southern Senators is to see that the great interests of the section they represent gets its proportionate share of it.

If this doesn't satisfy our esteemed Winston contemporary, the editor should read an interview with Mr. D. A. Tompkins, published in Tuesday's Charlotte Observer. He occupies about three columns to demonstrate what The Star endeavored to do in a short editorial. Mr. Tompkins was speaking of the cotton goods schedule, in which the South is vitally interested, because we now spin more cotton than the Northern mills, while at the same time the South is doubly interested because it produces the raw cotton as well as manufactures it. What would the Republican think of Southern Senators, if, for "sentiment," they would sit by and see the cotton goods schedule revised downward for the South and upward for the North? Our sole contention is that if we are to have protection on cotton goods, the South should get its proportionate share of the bounty. There's no treason in that.

However, we fear that in considering the cotton goods schedule our Southern Senators did let "sentiment" make them more or less mute, for in speaking of the fight against the cotton industry, Mr. Tompkins in that Charlotte Observer interview says:

"The most serious phase of the situation seems to be that in a fight between a few insurgents of the Northwest impelled apparently by the motive of revenge against Aldrich for disappointed desires, neither the cotton trade nor the cotton goods trade had a voice lifted in their defense in the Senate by those who particularly represent these in the South. The Representatives of the whole piedmont section remained speechless and allowd themselves to be bluffed by Dolliver, LaFollette and Beveridge. Look at the combination and we can but wonder that they succeeded in the bluff in so far as the vote of the South is concerned but happily not so in so far as the schedule is concerned, thanks to the New England Senators—the Yankees."

The South now spins more than 2,000,000 bales of raw cotton, and the Southern cotton manufacturer as well as the Southern cotton grower certainly have a right to expect their Senators and Representatives to take care of such a great interest when such a momentus question is up for action and the "friends of the tariff" are working it for all it's worth.

The Philadelphia Evening Times says Senator Rayner, of Mayland, is the most solemn visaged man in the United States Senate. He's all right, however, and has a remarkable sense of humor, but lately he just had to look shocked at the lame excuses which some Democratic Senators give for voting for protective tariff schedules.

Another sign of the improvement of business is that the railroads report that the net decrease of idle cars last week was 10,589. Within ninety days a still larger number of the 273,890 idle cars in the United States and Canada will go into commission to move cotton, grain and other products of this wonderfully productive country.

Secretary MacVeigh's Chicago speech in which he handed out certain things that President Taft stands for and will not stand for, was not exactly repudiated at the White House on Tuesday but enough was intimated for everybody to infer that he is entirely too fresh and irresponsible as a mouthpiece.

After Congress adjourns for the Summer, Representative Hollingsworth, of Ohio, should come down South and ascertain for himself that the Civil War came to a close in the Spring of 1865, 44 years ago. Doubtless he has heard of it but the indications are that he believes somebody has imposed on him.

We admire a great many things about the Hon. William J. Bryan, therefore, we hate to look at that splotch on the ceilingw here he hit broadside when Senator Simmons took the in-turn on him in that wrestling match for the "inconsistency" stakes on Monday.

Uncle Joe probably would be jealous if he didn't think Senator Aldrich was only trying to pattern after him.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—Booker T. Washington indorses Mr. Taft's policy toward the South. Booker T. has no idea of cutting his cables to the White House—Baltimore Sun.

—If Greensboro only lacks three thousand of being as big as Charlotte she should have no trouble in fixing it up with the directory man.—Durham Herald.

—Next year there will be a great hotel in the Clinchfield country for Summer visitors. Next Winter, if all the present signs do not fail, there will be a modern hotel in Charleston for the Northern visitors.—Charleston News and Courier.

—Isn't it marvelous what a mass of legislation we still need, in both State and Nation, notwithstanding we have been legislating steadily for a good deal more than a hundred years! Is it possible that we will ever get enough of it?—Savannah News.

—Of course a few cities have shown remarkable growth during the past few years, but it has been our observation that same towns, not considered seriously, will show some big gains in population. Every town in North Carolina is progressing, but none more than those in Piedmont Carolina.—Winston-Salem Journal.

—A nation with a history of less than a hundred and fifty years, on a background of bushranging, can hardly be expected to appreciate the finer feelings that matured communities would see officially reflected in their collective behavior; and our diplomats at home do not appear yet to have realized the fallacy of applying European standard to American conduct.—London.

—Greensboro, Charlotte and Wilmington are squabbling over their population and the papers of those towns are accusing each other of having gotten next to the directory man. Well that's their fight, we won't butt in, but the next time Uncle Sam takes a census here he will have to use about one-half again as much pencil and paper as he did before. Now that's coming some!—Newbern Sun.

—Senator Tillman was wholly right last Saturday when he described the Republican Senators as the "boldest band of buccaneers" that ever was. The Springfield Republican thinks that our senior Senator is "something of a pirate himself," as, for example, in the case of the lumber tariff; but even if that be true, it does not prove that the Republican Senators are not buccaneers, and that was the point of Mr. Tillman's contention.—Charleston News and Courier.

—We are rather inclined to sympathize with the near-beer dealers in their contention for a tax that will permit them to do business. (The license tax is $1,000 a year). We are not acquainted with the beverage, but we doubt if it is more injurious to health than some of the so-called dope drinks, but as long as the farmer has to find someone willing to pay a license tax of $1,000 before he can find a purchaser in Charlotte for his cider, what hope is there for the near-beer man? The law does not prohibit the making of cider, but what is the use of the Mecklenburg farmer saving the by-product of his orchard in that way, when he cannot sell it? It is well enough to bar "spiked" cider, but some way ought to be found to let the farmer in with the honest product.—Charlotte Chronicle.

TWINKLINGS.

—Wigwag—"Bjones says he is a woman hater." Henpeckke—"I can't understand that. He has never been married."

—Mrs. Grouch—I was deeply touched by Mr. Highbee's misfortune. Mr. Grouch—I was less fortunate. I was touched by Highbee.—St. Louis Times.

—"I can't tell her she's the first girl I ever loved. She knows I've been engaged before." "Well, tell her you're glad you discovered your mistake in time."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

—"Jabez is certainly a real optimist." "As to how?" "The Plunkville team ain't won a game." "Well?" "But he only says it's better to do your losing early in the season."—Washington Herald.

—"You say you are in love with Miss Baggs?" "I sure am." "But I can't see anything attractive about her." "Neither can I see it. But it's in the bank, all right."—Cleveland Leader.

—"Ethel's a horrid thing." "Why, I thought you were friends." "Well, we aren't any more. She has a more hideous hat than mine, and I'd told my milliner to go to the limit."—Philadelphia Ledger.

—Mr. Sunsby—If that young man's coming here to see you every day in the week you had better give him a hint to come after supper. Miss Bunsby—I don't think it's necessary, pa. That's what he comes after.—Detroit News-Tribune.

—"How does it happen that a third of the population of your vast country is in the East?" asked the visitor. "I presume that the discomfort of riding brakebeams has to be regarded as a factor," explained the native student of sociology.—Philadelphia Ledger.

A Thrilling Rescue.

How Bert R. Lean, of Cheny, Wash. was saved from a frightful death is a story to thrill the world. "A hard cold," he writes, "brought on a desperate lung trouble that baffled an expert doctor here. Then I paid $10 to $15 a visit to a lung specialist in Spokane, who did not help me. Then I went to California, but without benefit. At last I used Dr. King's New Discovery, which completely cured me and now I am as well as ever." To the SMALL MERCHANT,

Dear Sir:—If you buy money orders in making remittances, or register letters containing currency, you are practicing extravagance, and at the same time people to whom you remit form the impression that you are not well informed as to proper business methods.

If you will open a checking account at this bank and pay every bill with your own check, you will not only save many dimes and quarters that now go to waste, but will establish yourself with the only class of merchants which succeed—they all use their own checks in remitting.

There is another and more valuable feature—the bank will practically keep your cash account, and the bank book, balanced each month, will show how much money you took in, how and to whom you paid it, and how much is left.

Call at our bank and receive instructions and a nice check book free.

Yours truly,
THE SOUTHERN NATIONAL BANK.

DAY'S DOINGS IN RALEIGH

Surprise Marriage in Official Family. Incipient Strike by Carpenters. Retail Merchants' Association—The State Club.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 9—There was an agreeable surprise on every hand here this morning as the news spread around that Mr. W. S. Wilson, corporation clerk to the Secretary of State, and Mrs. Mary Strong Calvert, one of Raleigh's most cultured and highly esteemed ladies were married.

The marriage was a complete surprise to even their most intimate friends and took place last night at the home of Mrs. Calvert's sister, Mrs. Carrie Strong, Dr. I. McK. Pittinger, rector of The Church of the Good Shepherd officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson were at home to their friends today and there was a constant stream of callers extending hearty good wishes.

The Raleigh Merchants' Association has determined to bring the 1910 convention of the State Federation of Merchants' Associations to Raleigh and has appointed a special delegation to go to the 1909 convention in Elizabeth City June 15th and make the fight for Raleigh.

The Stephens Construction Company, of Wilmington, had an incipient strike on its hands last evening that was quickly settled, however by the company acceding to the demands of the striking carpenters. It has been difficult to get all the carpenters needed for some time and several pressing contracts constrained the Stephens Company, to engage a number of negro carpenters and send them to work on a building in West Raleigh where a large number of white carpenters were at work. When the negroes came on the trouble began. There were conferences among the white carpenters and pretty soon these all left their work and began packing their tools. The foreman was informed that they would not work with the negroes. The up-town office was communicated with. Manager Gerken and others came on the scene. The negroes were paid off and told to go and the trouble was all over.

Colonel Fred A. Olds, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, left this afternoon for Columbia with Mr. Leonard Tufts the Southern Pines millionaire, for Columbia to attend a big meeting there in the interest of the great New York-Atlanta automobile highway, their effort being especially to insure the passage of the highway through the various State capitals. Col. Olds is for the Raleigh Chamber working up the interest among the officers of the counties in North Carolina that would be traversed if the "Capitals route" is ultimately successful. He says the responses are especially encouraging, it being established that there will be very little expense of the road construction to come out of the general fund since the counties will set about putting the roads in order for themselves.

"The State Club" is now fully organized and established in its club house on the west side of Capital Square, it being a club of state officials and their friends. The Woman's Club building has been admirably furnished with mission furniture for the purposes of "The State Club," the ladies retaining for their own uses only the assembly room of the building. Dr. B. F. Dixon, who organized the club, is president and C. W. Gold secretary and treasurer. The membership is limited to fifty and has for an executive committee Judge H. G. Connor; Secretary of State Grimes; Superintendent of Public Instruction J. Y. Joyner President D. H. Hill of the A. & M. College and Dr. Albert Anderson. The primary purpose of the club is to afford a meeting place in a social way for the State officers and their friends.

HOME ENDORSEMENT.

Hundreds of Wilmington Citizens Can Tell You All About It.

Home endorsement, the public expression of Wilmington people, should be evidence beyond dispute for every Wilmington reader. Surely the experience of friends and neighbors, cheerfully given by them, will carry more weight than the utterance of strangers residing in faraway places. Read the following:

L. H. Partin, 7 So. Fourth St., Wilmington, N. C., says: "I can say that Doan's Kidney Pills are a good remedy for the kidneys as I used them and know whereof I speak. My back was very weak and lame and I was bothered by pains across my loins. The kidney secretions were highly colored, contained a sediment and were very painful in passage. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, I concluded to give them a trial and procured a box at Robert R. Bellamy's drug store. They acted just as represented and it was not long before I was entirely relieved."

For sale by all dearers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Women Who Are Envied.

Those attractive women who are lovely in face form and temper are the envy of many, who might be like them. A weak, sickly woman will be nervous and irritable. Constipation or Kidney poisons show in pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. For all such, Electric Bitters work wonders. They regulate Stomach, Liver and Kidneys, purify the blood; give strong nerves, bright eyes, pure breath, smooth, velvety skin, lovely complexion. Many charming women owe their health and beauty to them. 50c at R. R. Bellamy's.

BEAUTIFUL HOME WEDDING

Miss Florence Keen Becomes the Bride of Mr. J. Marsden Davis. Many Friends and Relatives Witness Nuptial Event.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Keen, No. 202 North Seventh street, at 8:30 o'clock last night when their attractive daughter, Miss Florence Silvey Keen, became the bride of Mr. J. Marsden Davis, the impressive ceremony being performed by Rev. Wm. E. Cox, rector of St. John's Episcopal Church, in the presence of a hundred or more friends and relatives of the contracting parties. The beautiful ring ceremony of the Episcopal Church was used.

The home was tastefully decorated throughout, the color scheme being white and green. Smilax and white flowers were used very effectively in the decorations.

The bridal party entered the parlor to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, skilfully rendered by the orchestra with piano accompaniment by Miss Hattie Gardner. The maid of honor, Miss Virginia A. Keen, sister of the bride, who was handsomely attgowned in white messaline, trimmed with real lace, and carried a bouquet of white carnations, entered first from the hall, being followed by the bride, who was leaning on the arm of her father. The bride was beautifully gowned in white messaline ,trimmed in hand embroidery, and carried a bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. The groom and his best man, Mr. H. W. Colwell, entered from the dining room, meeting the bride in front of the improvised alter where the ceremony took place.

The many beautiful and valuable presents received attest the popularity of the young couple.

Following the ceremony a reception was tendered the bridal party, during which the couple received heartiest felicitations of the entire assemblage.

The bride is an attractive and popular young lady and has a wide circle of friends. The groom holds a position in the auditor's office of the Atlantic Coast Line and is held in the highest esteem by all.

For the present Mr. and Mrs. Davis will reside with the bride's parents.

Evidence Not Sufficient.

William McKoy, colored, was arrested yesterday morning by Deputy Sheriff Howe on the charge of assault with deadly weapon upon Joe Kelly, a colored boy, on June 1st. The boy was hit on the head with a brick and his condition is said to be serious. Lurens Underwood, colored, who was a witness to the assault appeared before Justice Bornemann and testified that McKoy was not the one who threw the brick, whereupon the justice ordered the defendant discharged. The warrant was sworn out by the lad's father.

RAILROAD SURGEONS LEAVE

Closing Session of Annual Meeting Held Yesterday Afternoon—Officers Elected—Next Meeting Place Not Decided.

After having spent the day in listening to excellent papers and impromptu remarks regarding the proper care and treatment of emergency cases, and the election of officers for the ensuing year, the fifth annual meeting of the Association of Atlantic Coast Line Surgeons, which convened in the assembly hall of the Seashore Hotel Tuesday afternoon, came to a close shortly before 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and some of the visitors left on the night trains for their respective homes. Others will leave today while some will spend several days longer at the beach and in the city.

Immediately after adjournment the visitors went to Lumina, where a delightful reception was tendered them by Mrs. G. G. Thomas, of this city. The event was attended by practically all of the visiting surgeons and the members of their families and the occasion was one which they will long remember.

The following named were elected officers of the association for the ensuing year:

President—Dr. J. H. Pittman, Jacksonville, Fla.

First Vice President—Dr. W. H. H. Cobb, Goldsboro.

Second Vice President—Dr. A. M. Brailsford, Mullins, S. C.

Third Vice President—Dr. J. A. Spence, Carmilla, Ga.

Secretary and Treasurer—Dr. C. P. Aiman, Charleston, S. C.

The question of the next meeting place was brought up and discussed, but definite action was not taken, the matter being left in the hands of Dr. G. G. Thomas, chairman of the executive committee. Havana, Cuba, and Montgomery, Ala., were both considered as being desirable places for the next meeting.

Yesterday morning's session was called to order at 10 o'clock by the president, Dr. J. H. McIntosh, and the first thing on the programme was his annual address. The principal matter treated in the address was with reference to the giving of expert testimony in damage cases and he suggested several changes which should be made in the law. Dr. McIntosh pointed out that the local surgeons were not experts in the broadest sense of the word and said that they should not be called upon to testify as such. Their testimony should be confined to a statement of the facts as they found them to exist. The average practicing physician is not prepared to give expert testimony and he should be relieved of it. He called attention to the fact that many times a physician is summoned to appear in court on very short notice and when he has several very serious patients and is kept in court for days and then not called. He thought that there should be some remedy. His remarks were heartily endorsed by the other members of the association.

President McIntosh was followed by Dr. G. G. Thomas, of this city, chief surgeon of the road, who was on the programme for "General Remarks," speaking mainly of the care and treatment of the injured before they are sent to a hospital. He advised above all things to make the wound antiseptic and use but scant bandages. Dr. Thomas was heard frequently during the discussions of the day and his remarks were listened to attentively.

"Fractures" were considered for the remainder of the morning session, Dr. W. S. Lynch, of Scranton, S. C., reading the first paper, being followed by Dr. B. H. McCrummen, of Ramer, Ala., who made a "Report of case of compound fracture of tibia and fibula." "When and when not to interfere with cranial injuries" was the subject of a paper by Dr. S. T. Nicholson, of Washington, D. C., and Dr. Southgate Leigh, who has a private sanitarium in Norfolk, Va., spoke of "Surgical cleanliness in railroad surgery." In course of his remarks Dr. Leigh said that he felt unsafe in treating a fracture without the use of an X-ray. He stated further that the X-ray was the cause of uncomfortable feelings on the part of some surgeons for any errors they might have made show up after the fracture has knitted. He urged his hearers to exercise great care and judgment in the cases of fracture.

Dr. Russell Bellamy, of this city, was extended the courtesies of the floor and was listened to with evident interest in discussing fractures and other injuries which had come under his observation. Before taking his seat Dr. Bellamy thanked Dr. McIntosh for what he said in his annual address regarding expert testimony and heartily endorsed every word.

At 1 o'clock a motion to adjourn until 2:30 o'clock was made and carried.

Quite a number of the Coast Line surgeons arrived Tuesday night and yesterday morning with the result that the meetings yesterday were more largely attended than the opening session.

At the afternoon session the following papers were read and freely discussed: "Hyosoine-Morphine Technic," Dr. A. M. Brailsford, Mullins, S. C.; "Differential Diagnosis Between Typhoid and Malarial Fevers," Dr. A. B. Patterson, Barnwell, S. C.; "Malarial Haematuria," Dr. J. C. Call, Waycross, Ga.; "Some Physic Phenomena," Dr. N. W. Hicks, Florence, S. C.; "Report of Cases of Severe Shock," Dr. W. J. Harrell, Aulander, N. C.; "Malingering," Dr. J. S. Dusenberry, Conway, S. C.; "Burns," Dr. R. B. Miller, Goldsboro; "Burns and Scalds," Dr. A. H. Culpepper, Homerville, Ga.; "Treatment of Burns," Dr. J. E. Lee, Thomasville, Ga.; "Uselessness of the Average Medical Statistics and Necessity for Accurate Record Before Reaching Conclusions," Dr. D. W. Bulluck, of this city; "Importance of Careful Diagnosis," Dr. J. B. H. Knight, Williamston, N. C.; "Tuberculosis, further report," Dr. A. H. Williams, Lake City, S. C.; "Amputations," Dr. C. E. Moore, Wilson; "Minor Surgery," Dr. J. H. Pittman, Jacksonville, Fla.; "The Surgeon's Emergency Bag," Dr. W. H. Brockington, Kingstree, S. C.; "Punctured Wounds," Dr. A. F. Fletcher, Mulberry; "Lock Jaw," Dr. J. H. McIntosh, Columbia, S. C.; "Some Injuries From Car Wheels," Dr. G. F. Lucas, Currie, N. C.; "Spontaneous Cervical Dislocation," Dr. W. T. Turlington, Fremont; "Sprains," Dr. R. J. Noble, Selma; "Report of Case of Chronic Empyemia," Dr. J. L. McMillan, Red Springs; "Report of Cases," Dr. M. N. Stow, Jesup, Ga.; "Report of Cases," Dr. W. H. H. Cobb, Goldsboro, and Dr. G. A. Hammond, Dothan, Ala., and Dr. E. C. Moore, Elm City, S. C., who made interesting impromptu remarks.

STOCK DAMAGED BY WATER.

Damage to the extent of between $1,500 and $2,000 was done to departments of the stock of the C. W. Polvogt Company, i nthe Southern Building, night before last as the result of either a break in the water fixtures or the careless leaving of a connection open on the fifth floor occupied by the various departments of Hugh MacRae & Co. The damage by the running water was discovered when the store was opened yesterday morning by Mr. J. Wannamaker, the carpet and matting department on the second floor having been pretty well soaked; the south side of the first floor in the white goods and domestic departments having been well drenched and the basement where trunks and valises are stored having been flooded. The company carried no insurance and is forced to the expedient of selling the damaged goods out at once, regardless of cost, as will be noted by an advertisement elsewhere in today's paper. Several offices on the third and fourth floors were damaged slightly but nothing like to the extent of the merchandise stock. The sale at Polvogt's begins Thursday morning.

SEABOARD EXCURSION

From Charlotte and Other Points to Wilmington Next Week.

The Seaboard Air Line expects to bring several hundred people to Wilmington and the beaches next Wednesday on a three-day excursion which starts from Charlotte. Passengers will be taken on as far down as Lumberton. Many people from Chester, Sanford, Cheraw and other points on the Seaborad will board the train at nearest station. The schedule will allow the visitors to spend two nights and a whole day in the city. The train will reach here at 3:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon and leave on the return trip at 9:30 Friday morning.

The fare from Charlotte will be only $3 and the fact that it is so low will induce a large number of people to come. The fare from intermediate points is in proportion.

Charged With False Pretense.

John Law, colored, will be tried in Justice Bornemann's court at 11:30 o'clock this morning on the charge of false pretense, a warrant having been sworn out against him by William Love, another negro, in which he charges that he paid Law $8 to order him a suit of clothes which was never delivered. Love is said to have received a letter from the house Law claimed to represent stating that no such order had been received by them. It seems that the defendant has duped others in the same manner and they will appear as witnesses against him at the trial. Walter P. Gafford, Esq., has been retained as counsel for the defendant and Herbert McClammy, Esq., will represent Love.

TARRYMOORE OPENS TODAY.

Season at Wrightsville Beach Now on in Full Blast.

The Tarrymoore Hotel will open this morning for the season which promises to be a big one for that popular hostelry. A number of repairs and improvements have been made since last season and the hotel is better prepared than ever to take care of its guests. From the reservations already made the hotel will be crowded most of the time during the Summer. An Italian orchestra has been engaged to furnish the music for the season.

The Seashore opened the 1st of June and there are quite a large number of guests there already and there are new arrivals daily. The music will be furnished by the Nixon family orchestra, the members of which arrived yesterday. Miss Florence A. Mills, of Cincinnati, came in yesterday morning and will join the orchestra as cello player.

JOHN REDD ARRESTED.

Nabbed Last Night on the Charge of Selling Whiskey.

The police are waging a relentless warfare on the "blind tigers" in the city and they propose to wipe out of existence as nearly all of them as possible. The sentences given those convicted will have a tendency to curtail the sale for some time. Last night another alleged "blind tiger" was taken in when John Redd, a well known character, was arrested by Patrolman J. H. Davis on a warrant sworn out by Patrolman J. R. Minshue. The principal witness against the defendant will be Lee Justice, a white man, who figured in yesterday's court as a witness against Hartsfield Crandall. Justice will testify that he purchased whiskey from Redd on the 5th day of June.

RECORDER HAS TWO SESSIONS

Three "Blind Tigers" Get Terms on the County Roads—Ralph Kennedy Heavily Fined for Assault and Resisting Arrest.

It was necessary to hold two sessions of the Recorder's court yesterday in order to dispose of the large number of interesting cases on docket for trial. The first session adjourned at 12 o'clock and the second convened at 3 in the afternoon and continued until after 6 o'clock. The Recorder had several blind tiger cases before him but from the sentences imposed upon those found guilty it is probable that the violations of the prohibition law will be less frequent.

Hartsfield Crandall, a well known young white man, who was convicted Tuesday of selling whiskey to Lee Justice, was found guilty yesterday of assault on Lee Justice with a deadly weapon and stealing his watch from him. Sentence was pronounced in all three cases, the aggregate term on the county roads being 18 months. Notice of an appeal to the Superior Court was given and the bond was placed at $500.

Ammie Cumber, white, was convicted of selling whiskey and he got a sentence of 12 months on the county roads. He gave notice of an appeal to the Superior court. His bond was fixed at $250. A case against him for drunkenness was nol prossed. Boss White, colored, got a like sentence for dispensing the ardent. He did not appeal his case.

The cases against M. L. Winner, who conducts a store on corner of Front and Dock streets, charging him with selling whiskey to Stevens Jenkins, colored, and Policeman Saunders, were continued until today, and the defendant gave $600 for his appearance in court, the bond being signed by J. T. Burke. The trial of the cases against Thomas DeVine and Paul Monegan, colored, for selling intoxicants, was continued until today. Hanse Olson, a white man, was found guilty of disorderly conduct and required to pay a fine of $5 and the costs.

The afternoon session of the court continued from 3 until after 6 o'clock and was entirely taken up with the trial of Ralph Kennedy, a well known young white man, charged with an assault and battery upon J. W. Smith, a white lad, and resisting Officer H. P. Merritt, and R. E. Windham, also white, charged with interfering with the officer in the arrest of Kennedy, all the cases having been pending for some time. The prosecution was conducted by Herbert McClammy, Esq., city attorney, while Hon. Jno. D. Bellamy and Woodus Kellum, Esq., appeared for Kennedy and Walter P. Gafford, Esq., for Windham. The latter was found not guilty and discharged, but Kennedy was found guilty and fined $50 and costs from which Attorney Kellum gave notice of an appeal to the Superior Court.

TAX UPON CORPORATIONS

Republican Senators, Are Opposed to President Taft's Recommendation

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, June 9.—A tax upon corporations as a substitute for an income tax does not appeal to the Senate. This was demonstrated today by a canvass of that body. It developed that practically the same Senators who are opposed to the income tax are also against the corporation tax.

The income tax supporters decline to be side-tracked with a corporation tax idea.

President Taft wanted a two per cent. tax placed on the dividends of corporations. Senator Aldrich agreed to this at a conference with the President, provided the advocates of an income tax would withdraw that measure. The plan, however, was repudiated when presented to Senators Cummins and Borah, the "progressive" Republican leaders of the income tax idea.

The income proposition will come up tomorrow for a vote but a motion will be made to postpone action and the indications are that practically all of the Republicans will support the postponement.

During the afternoon some doubt was expressed in informal discussion of the corporation tax proposition as to whether President Taft favored a tax on dividends, or a tax on the net earnings of corporations over $100.000. Both plans were discussed.

Whichever idea is favored at the White House it is said that no support could be found among the Senators who advocate the adoption of an amendment providing for a tax on incomes.

The indications are that the only form of compromise among the Republican Senators that can be adopted is the reference of the income tax amendment to the judiciary committee with instructions that there shall be reported early in the next session a measure which the committee believes will stand test in the Supreme Court as to its constitutionality.

Mr. Culberson, minority leader, in a statement tonight called attention to the Democratic attitude. He said:

"I have no doubt that all Democrats will support the income tax amendment and will insist upon a prompt disposition of it tomorrow."

ALGERNON SARTORIS RESIGNS

Grand Son of General Grant Down and Out For Some Reason.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, June 9.—Algernon Sartoris, grand son of President Grant, has resigned his post as secretary to the American legation in Guatemala. Ill health was stated to be the cause, but that there may have been other reasons than ill health for Mr. Sartoris' resignation, was strongly intimated here tonight. Whether family differences or prejudice against him on the part of high government officials have played any part in Mr. Sartiros' retirement from the diplomatic service cannot at this time be accurately determined.

CASES WERE COMPROMISED

Three Suits Against the Clarendon Waterworks Company Settled. Basis and Terms of Settlement Not Made Public.

It developed yesterday that compromise had been effected in the big damage suits of G. D. Phares & Company, the Willard Bag & Manufacturing Company, and the Carolina Insurance Company against the Clarendon Waterworks Company, which have been pending for several years in the Superior Court. It is stated that a compromise was reached shortly before the cases were called for trial at the last term of Superior Court, this really having been the cause of continuance though it was stated at the time that continuance was on account of the illness of a witness.

The attorneys for all the interests involved in the cases decline to state the basis and terms of the settlement and the information may never be made public as the formal judgment later to be signed need not necessarily set out the terms of settlement.

The cases grew out of the Vollers fire, on Front street, several years ago, the plaintiffs alleging that they were damaged large amounts by reason of insufficient water pressure. It is understood that the waterworks company agreed to pay the costs of the actions. The attorneys in the cases were Messrs. Meares & Ruark and Woodus Kellum, Esq., for all the plaintiffs and Herbert McClammy, Esq., Marsden Bellamy, Esq., and Messrs. Davis & Davis for the defendant company.

SMUGGLED MANY CHINESE

Conspirators on Trial in Chicago For Violating Law.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Chicago, June 9.—Defendants in one of the greatest conspiracies to smuggle Chinese into this country across the Mexico border with which the Government ever has dealt, were placed on trial tonight before United States District Judge Landis Eight men were indicted as the result of the activity of governments. Three recently pleaded guilty, sentence being deferred one is a fugitive, the bonds of another were declared forfeited today and the remaining three entered pleas of not guilty.

Thos placed on trial today were Bob Leung, a Chinese merchant, of El Paso, and Jose Parra and Carlos Sevedra, Mexicans. John M. Yanner, a dining car cook, who assisted in transporting the aliens, will be a witness for the prosecution.

Assistant United States District Attorney Seward S. Shiere declared the alleged conspiracy had embraced many men besides those indicted and that they had brought hundreds of Chinese into this country. For each celestial thus smuggled the conspirators received $500 he said.

WHY HE DOES IT.

It is not often that we have faith enough in the medicines put up by other people to be willing to offer to refund the money if it does not cure," said druggist J. Hicks Bunting to one of their many customers, "but we are glad to sell Dr. Howard's specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia on that plan.

"The Dr. Howard Co., in order to get a quick introductory sale authorized us to sell the regular fifty cent bottle of their specific for half-price, 25 cents, and although we have sold a lot of it, and guaranteed every package, not one has been brought back as unsatisfactory.

There are sixty doses in a vial that can be carried in the vest pocket or purse, and every one has more medical power than a big pill or tablet or a tumbler of mineral water.

"We are still selling the specific at half price, although we cannot tell how long we shall be able to do so. Any person who is subject to constipation, sick headache, dizziness, liver trouble, indigestion or a general played out condition, ought to take advantage of this opportunity."

WARM WIRELETS.

In Washington today Wilbur and Orville Wright, the aeroplane inventors, will be presented with the gold medals awarded them by the Aero Club of America, the presentation to take place in the White House. President Taft will make a short address.

Announcement was made at Birmingham, Ala., last night by the Tennessee Coal & Irion Railroad Company that the steel rail mill of that company at Ensley would resume operations today. The mill has been shut down for several weeks. About 1,500 men will be put to work.

Preliminary to being towed to Charleston, S. C., for repairs to her damaged machinery the torpedo boat Winslow has put into port Beaufort. It developed yesterday that the Winslow did not run aground near Morehead City but was anchored near the buoy.

Detecting Erasures.

If paper upon which erasures of writing have been made is exposed to the vapor of iodine the roughened surface takes a different tint from that portion which has not been tampered with. If the erasure has been lightly made, only the ink or pencil lead being rubbed away and the mark left in the fiber of the paper, iodine vapor causes the writing to reappear. This is because wherever the paper has been roughened more iodine is absorbed than by a smooth surface. This test is effective within three months after the making of the alteration.

George Brennecke was yesterday re-elected president; Arthur R. Marsh, vice president, and James F. Manry, treasurer, at the annual election of the New York Cotton Exchange. There was no opposition ticket in the field.

Most Northern Canada.

Of the possibilities of extreme northern Canada a traveler writes: "The country that one passes through from Athabasca Landing down to the Arctic Red river is full of vegetation and will, in my opinion, one day be settled. In all the mission gardens at the different posts that I passed I saw wheat and barley growing, potatoes, lettuces, turnips, carrots and every kind of vegetable that one grows in one's own garden at home. The country is thickly timbered near the banks of the river, and there are few places in which you do not find large patches of prairie. You pass by a great outrush of natural gas, and oil is oozing out for miles along the river bank."

A Sense of Propriety.

"So you stole this man's ax?" said the judge.

"Yessah. I reckons dar ain' no use tryin' ter spute de facts."

"What did you do that for? He said he would have been perfectly willing to lend you the ax."

"Yes; but you see, jedge, dat man's on'y jes' moved in de neighborhood. I doesn' know him wel enough ter go 'roun' ter his house borryin'."—Washington Star.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—Weldon, June 8.—Stock has been subscribed for another big mill at Roanoke Rapids to cost $500,000.

—Lumberton Robesonian: Mr. S. J. Meares, who runs a job printing office at Clarkton, is considering starting a paper at that place. Bladen county has had no paper since The Express suspended some time ago.

At a meeting on Monday night, the Charlotte board of Aldermen decided to charge delinquent taxpayers 6 per cent. interest on all overdue taxes. A petition from the near-beer dealers to be relieved of the $1,000 license tax is to be acted upon later.

—Raleigh News and Observer, June 9: Mr. Elias Carr, secretary of the State Board of Agriculture, has gone to Baltimore to look into the matter of purchasing tags for the oil inspection division of the department and concerning paraphernalia for the division.

—Clayton, June 8.—Clayton lodge of Knights of Pythias tonight instructed their representatives to offer to the Grand Lodge in session at Hendersonville $65,000 in cash and the choice of two sites of 20 acres each for the location of the Pythian Orphanage at this place.

—Scotland Neck, June 8.—As a result of the heavy rains trains could not pass over all the Coast Line railroad between Scotland Neck and Weldon. Passengers and mail had to be transferred and the train had to return although a mile and a half of track was out of order between this place and Weldon.

—Weldon, June 8.—The County Board of Commissioners of Halifax county today awarded the contract to the Falls City Construction Company, of Louisville, Ky., for $39,000 for building a new court house, work to begin at once. The new court house is to be a magnificent building on the order of the Rutherford county court house.

—Wadesboro, June 8.—Della Sellars, a negro woman in White Store township, was arrested last night charged with the murder of an infant. The child was eight days old. Witnesses testified before the coroner that the mother had threatened to strangle the child because it was white. Marks on the throat of the body show death by strangulation. The coroner's jury found a verdict of murder.

—Weldon, June 8.—The case of Judge Walter Clark, of the North Carolina Supreme Court against the Patapsco Guano Company is being tried in Halifax Superior Court today. This action was brought on account of damage to Judge Clark's Roanoke river farm by the defendant company building a dam below Judge Clark's farm and which it is claimed caused the waters to pond on the lands of the plaintiff.

—Winston-Salem, June 8.—The Methodist Children's Home here will be opened August 1. The directors representing the Western North Carolina Conference have purchased the Davis school property for $12,500, giving the orphanage site about two hundred acres, same being one of the finest and most valuable tracts in the State. Many useful furnishings, gifts, etc., are being received daily. Prof. A. H. Hayes, of Reidsville, superintendent of the orphanage, enters upon his work July 10.

—Charlotte Observer: The cotton mill which the Cannons, of Concord, are to build is to be placed in Albemarle as originally stated, instead of at Kannapolis, as recently reported. When it was announced that the mill might be built at Kannapolis, representative citizens of Albemarle got busy and brought sufficient pressure to bear upon Mr. J. W. Cannon to induce him to perfect his plans as he had originally intended. The new mill which is to house about 25,000 spindles, will be known as Wascasset, No. 4. Work will commence at once.

—Statesville, June 8.—Sheriff Deaton has appointed Deputy Sheriff C. L. Gilbert, of Shiloh township, jailor to succeed Mrs. L. R. Connelly, who has resigned as keeper of the county prison and will move into her new home on East Front street as soon as it is completed and ready for occupancy, unless she decides to remain in charge of the jail until the new jail bunlding is completed. Mrs. Connelly has been in charge of the jail since the death of her husband, who was jailer, a year or so ago, and she has proven herself an efficient and faithful keeper of the prison.

—Raleigh News and Observer, June 8.—Mr. T. W. Adickes, of the State Museum, has returned from Cape Lookout and has brought back with him the big whale that was brought ashore there. This was left on the sands for some time, till the flesh was off and is now being placed in a huge sand box in the yard at the State Museum so as to get all the oil out of the bones before it is mounted and placed in the Museum. The whale, which was a young one, was 47 feet long and nine feet across at the thickest portion of its body.

—Raleigh, June 8.—The State board of education met today in the Governor's office. It took up the matter of drainage of Lake Mattamuskeet. No definite action was taken, as amendments are to be made to the petition for the formation of a drainage district composed of this lake and the lands adjoining it. The board confirmed the option given Mr. Stewart, of New York City, on the great swamp known as Angola "bay", in Onslow and Duplin, 47,000 acres, at 50 cents cash per acre; 25 cents per acre additional out of the proceeds of the sale of timber, and half the value of all timber over this amount; also 15 per cent. of the value of the proceeds of the sales of lands after they have been drained and cleared. The option is for six months and $200 has been paid down to secure it.

The Traveling Public

recognize the digestant qualities of a high-grade beer while eating and as an invigorant when travel weary.

On the dining cars of America more

Budweiser

The King of All Bottled Beers

is served than all other beers. Budweiser is a friend of the traveler because it soothes fatigue and is a shield against ill-health.

The popular verdict of the people is the best evidence of Budweiser's superiority. More Budweiser is used in American Homes, Hotels, Clubs and Cafes, on Ocean and Lake Steamers than any other two brands of bottled beer combined.

CAUTION: To guard against deception and substitution, see that the corks are branded "BUDWEISER" and that the "Crown Caps" bear the A and Eagle trade-mark.

THE COTTON MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, June 9.—After a lower opening the cotton market steadied today and while the close was termed barely steady, last prices were unchanged to 7 points higher. The market started steady at a net decline of 3 to 11 points in response to lower cables than expected, continued good weather in the south and overnight selling orders. There was heavy buying at the initial decline, which carried prices to the lowest point reached since the advance culminated last month, and while there was more or less regularity during the middle of the day the tendency was irregularly upward during the middle of the day the tendency was generally upward until July sold 8 points higher and later months showed a net advance of about 3 to 6 points during the late trading. Last prices were a little off from the best under realizing. The improvement after the opening was assisted by bullish reports from dry goods circles and bullish advices from the South regarding the interior spot situation. In fact, it was reported that the holders were showing no disposition to follow the decline in futures, and that buyers found it difficult to secure supplies in the interior, while unsold stocks at the leading points of the accummulation are said to be very small. The weather map made a very favorable showing, and while the forecast for threatening conditions in East Texas suggested unsettled weather conditions in the central valley, the possibilities in this direction were not sufficiently defined to exert much influence on the market. A rumor was persistently circulated that a private settlement had been made through an exchange of 50,000 bales of July for October at a ten point premium on October and premium being smaller than carrying charges suggested that big spot people desired to retain control of the New York stock.

Receipts at the ports today were 10,616 bales against 4,812 last week and 12,561 last year. For the week 55,000 against 59,361 last week and 64,544 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 5,516 against 4,728 last year and at Houston 117 against 2,232 last year.

Spot cotton closed quiet 5 points lower; middling uplands 11.30; middling gulf 11.45. Sales none.

Futures opened easy ad closed barely steady.

MARKET GOSSIP.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, June 9.—The decisive downward turn taken by the price movement of stocks today inclined speculative sentiment to take account of unfavorable factors, but there was little that was positively unfavorable in the news. The rapid decline in Southern Pacific upon the announcement of the much heralded plan to retire the preferred stock was taken as an object lesson of the extent to which favorable developments have been discounted in the speculation. There was an apparent shifting of holdings from Southern Pacific into Union Pacific. The large benefit to accrue to the Union Pacific treasury from any increase in the southern Pacific dividend was an additional incentive to this operation. Quite as much influence was exerted on speculative sencrease in the Southern Pacific divi- of a stock exchange member credited with an important share in the largest transactions of the recent past in the bull campaign as by any actual developments in conditions bearing on values. The government crop report was of some continuing influence towards depression although this was modified by the indifference manifested by the wheat market to the government's figures. A distinctly bad impression was created by the outcome of the New York city bond sale, for which applications were less than twice the amount offered.

The aggressive rise in Union Pacific helped the late restoration of the price level and reduced the day's net changes to small proportions.

Bonds were easy. Total sales, par value, were $5,890,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales of stocks today were 1,049,600 shares.

DROPPED THE THIRD

Are Giants Indeed.

Wilson, N. C., June 9.—The Giants have grown to wonderful proportion since the opening game here last Monday. Bunching hits in the third inning and an error in the eighth by the home team, gave them two runs. The features were the superb playing by both teams, and by Miller, unassisted. In the fifth retiring the entire side. Score.

Two-Hit Game at Fayetteville.

Fayetteville, N. C., June 9.—Raleigh took the third game of the series from Fayetteville 4 to 0 today. Brandon pitching a 2-hit game. A fielding feature was the throwing to bases of Galvin, the visitors being unable to steal on him. Score:

Diamond Dust

Yesterday was Whitewash time.

Go out and see the new men perform today.

Captain Dick batted .1000 in Tuesday's game. And also pilfered a home.

Patton pitched a good game; as the strike-outs to his credit will indicate.

Goldsboro has been doing some goose-egging for her own account the past few days.

The error column has not been strained with numerals the last few days. Keep it up, Boys!

Everybody should turn out for this afternoon's game. The Bugs and Fanabelles from Rocky Mount are coming down by special train, and we want to make a good appearance on the home grounds, in attendance, as well as enthusiasm.

Yesterday's Richmond Times-Dispatch: "That Harvey Bussey has finally gotten back into his old-time form was demonstrated yesterday, when he went eleven innings against the Norfolk Tars, and allowed them but five scattered singles and did not pass a single man. Bussey always has been famous for his good control, and it is a mighty big asset in winning games, for it frequently happens that a pass will develop into the run that proves to be the winning tally. Bussey batted .333, getting one hit in three times up. Bussey is one of the best hitting pitchers in the league, and also one of the best fielding twirlers."

PYTHIANS SELECT CHARLOTTE.

Wilmington Failed to Land Next Meeting—The New Officers.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Hendersonville, N. C., June 9—Charlotte gets the next annual meeting of the Grand Lodge, Knights of Pythias, winning over Wilmington, whose delegation made a vigorous fight for the pleasure of entertaining the Pythians next year. The annual election of officers occurred today as follows:

Supreme Representative, T. S. Franklin, of Charlotte; Grand Chancellor, George Hackney, of Asheville; Grand Vice Chancellor, J. N. McCausland, of Charlotte; Grand Prelate, Rev. W. B. Duttera, of Salisbury; Grand Secretary, W. R. Hollowell, of Goldsboro; Grand Master at Arms, W. B. Lake,, of Charlotte; Grand Inside Guard, C. H. Heine, of Raleigh; Grand Outer Guard, L. F. Powell, of Henderson.

Supreme Representative Carding, of Georgia, addressed the convention today on the insurance feature of the fraternity. The orphanage committee is giving long and earnest consideration to the orphanage matter and the institution will be established in accordance with the recommendations of the committee.

There is a large attendance of the Pythians from all sections of North Carolina and this delightful mountain town is gaily decorated in honor of the visitors, who are tonight being entertained at a lawn party on the grounds of the Wheeler House by the wives and daughters of the local Pythians.

THE Y. M. C. A. TENT.

Popular Retreat During Artillery Maneuvers at Fort Caswell.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Fort Caswell, N. C., June 3.—The Wilmington friends of the soldiers in camp here will be glad to know that the Y. M. C. A. in camp is the headquarters for the men where hundreds of them are supplied with writing material, stamps, more than 20 magazines and newspapers including The Star by courtesy of the publishers; also checkers, chess, dominoes, quoits, for recreation and amusement. The Y. M. C. A. tent is the coolest place in camp and is splendidly located. There is also provided a barrel of ice water that is much enjoyed by the men. The secretary is the honored guest at mess with the W. L. I. and has no kick whatever on the fare or cooking. The men are well and seem quite at home already in camp. Each night there will be a song service in the Y. M. C. A. tent. The contributors to the State work who make this work possible little know how great a factor it is in the lives of the men who are away from their homes and need more than ever these steadying influences. Each year the State encampments cost in the neighborhood of $500 by the State Committee. Everyone may have a part in providing this amount.

Hampton Moore, of Philadelphia, president of the Inland Deep Waterways Association; and Representatives Alexander and Cocks, of New York; Small, of North Carolina, and Loudenslager, of New Jersey, will start from Baltimore tomorrow afternoon on a trip through the Chesapeake and Delaware canal.

They expect to get as far as Chesapeake City tomorrow night and to reach Philadelphia Friday night whence they will return to Washington by rail.

PENSIONS FOR LIFE SAVERS.

Congress Should Look After Families of Brave Surfmen.

Washington, June 9.—That Congress should be equally as liberal with the life saving service as municipalities are with their fire fighting organizations in the matter of providing pensions for dependent women and children of life savers, was the declaration of Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Hill, before several hundred delegates to the 10th annual convention of the Surfmen's Mutual Benefit Association which began here today. The association is composed of about 1,350 men employed in the life saving service.

Following the addresses by S. I. Kimball and Oliver H. Maxam, general superintendent and assistant superintendent respectively of the life saving service, the convention adjourned for the day. In the afternoon the delegates were received by President Taft.

SOO CANAL LOCKS WRECKED.

Bad Accident Which Will Cost Many Thousands of Dollars.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., June 9.—With all the weight of Lake Superior behind it an ungoverned torrent of water rushes tonight through the $4,000,000 Canadian canal. The lock was wrecked today when the steamer Perry G. Walker rammed her bow through the lower gate. The canal encased within its walls this evening a tremendous spectacle including two waterfalls and a giant whirlpool. The upper gates were open when the Walker crushed the lower gates and the tremendous power of the rapids was given instant play. The big steamer Assiniboa, moored within the lock chamber, was torn away. She rammed the Walker from her path, the Assiniboa's anchor ripping a hole in the Walker's side. She swept into the open reaches of the river below. Her cargo shifted and this gave her a considerable list and several plates on her port side forward of amidships were loosened. The Walker whirled around several times and finally landed on a shoal out of the channel.

The ore-laden steamer Crescent City, just entering the locks from Lake Superior, was swept down stream like a feather. She overtook the Assiniboia and struck the latter two glancing blows after having two holes torn in her side as she swept through the broken lower gate. Tugs towed her to the American side where she settled.

The loss to the Canadian government will probably reach $250,000 and the damage to the Crescent City is estimated at $100,000. The damage to the steamers Walker and Assiniboia was comparatively light.

Captain Mosher, of the steamer Walker, declares that the accident was caused by his engineer making a mistake and throwing his lever to "full speed ahead" on the captain's signal to "back up."
